Reply Directly to a WhatsApp Post (Message)

In this circumstance, you aren't creating a brand new "post", but replying to a specific post in the potentially long list of WhatsApp posts. All group members will see the reply, but it's clear which "post" your reply relates to.

In the above screenshot, I had posted a photo of two computer monitors (top right). Jon and Patsy had then directly replied to my post. In the bottom left photo, Patsy had begun a brand new post.
